Public Safety Official Engaged In Official	Officers and medical personnel were dispatched to 711 E Parkland for a female subject possibly having a seizure. When medical personnel arrived on scene the subject violently grabbed one of the AMR crew around the neck and refused to let go resulting in pain and bruising. Firefighters and other medical personnel had to physically restrain the subject to get her away from the medic she assaulted.		DUFF, J. A.
LW 2100469 Strangulation	RESTRICTED VICTIM of Strangulation (C), at 1351 Shanklin Ave, Evansville, IN, between 20:30, 01/08/2021 and 21:08, 01/08/2021. Reported: 01/08/2021. Officers were dispatched to 1351 Shanklin Avenue for a possible harassment in progress. Once on scene, officers spoke with the victim, Followell, who said she and her boyfriend, Lipson, were in a physical altercation prior to officer`s arrival. Lipson was not on scene when officers arrived. Followell said they had been verbally arguing all day, until she asked Lipson to leave. Once she asked him to leave, he became angry. She told him she was going to call her Aunt and/or the police; at which point, Lipson grabbed her phone from her hand and broke it. In the process of taking her phone, Lipson scratched her face leaving a small mark on her left cheek. She said she had to use a strangers phone in order to contact her Aunt. According to Followell, they continued verbally arguing but the argument escalated and Lipson grabbed her throat and began to strangle her. She said she could not breathe and started choking, which is when Lipson let go and left the residence. Followell had a visible injury on the front of her neck from this incident. Before Lipson left, he told Followell that he was going to his sister-in-law`s house to get his gun. Lipson said he was going to come back and shoot her, her children, and then himself. Followell stated she believes his threat and is scared he is going to kill her and her children. Additionally, Followell said Lipson has been physically assaulting her for the last two days. She showed officers a bruise on her left arm from their physical altercation yesterday. She said the bruise is the result of Lipson grabbing her arm during a verbal argument. Followell said her children were upstairs for today`s altercation, but they were in the room for the incidents that took place the previous day, January 7th, 2021. Although they were upstairs, the children could hear the verbal and physical altercation from the upstairs bedroom. Crime scene took photos of Followell`s injuries. Followell was provided information for victims of domestic violence. She was also given a case number for her reference.		DUFF, J. A.

Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
Property Damage	property damage. Upon arrival I met with the victim, Dylan Schmitt, in the parking lot just south of the listed address. Schmitt stated that he had arrived at Hooters to eat with some friends around 1300 hours on today's date. Around 1405, he was asked by one of the waitresses if he owned the blue ford F150 that was parked outside. Schmitt stated that he did, and then was notified that someone had hit his truck and left the scene without staying to exchange information. Schmitt stated that while he was in the parking lot observing the damage to his truck, a unknown witness who was not on scene when officers arrived, stated that he witnessed the hit and run. The unknown witness stated that he was at McDonald's just south of where the incident took place, and he observed a gold colored SUV that was parked directly to the north of the damaged vehicle in a parking spot, back into the F150 and strike the left front bumper with the rear of his vehicle. Th unknown witness then told Schmitt that he saw the vehicle leave, but was unsure of the direction. Schmitt's vehicle was legally parked on the far south of the parking lot facing north. The weather condition outside during the incident was dry and cloudy. Officers went inside Hooters and spoke to the manager, David Bosma, who stated he had footage of the possible offender while he was at the bar. Officers observed a Hispanic male with brown hair, wearing a brown jacket as the offender. The offender paid with cash only, and the actual incident involving the hit and run was not captured on camera footage. Officers observed minor scratches and dents on the front left portion of Schmitt's vehicle, but no obvious paint transfer. I documented the damage with my department-issued body-worn camera and labeled them accordingly. Schmitt was provided with a case number for his reference. There was no known direction of travel for the offender's vehicle, and the only description was that it was a gold SUV. No one on scene was able to record a license plate of the offender vehicle.

Reported: 01/08/2021. Tot.Est.Loss: $2,150. Officers were dispatched to a domestic violence in progress (see Case# 21-00457). Upon officers arrival, we were flagged down by a separate individual not related to the domestic violence. I, Officer A. Beaver, went to address this individual while other officers met with the victim of the domestic violence. The second individual, Sammarvaie Lipson, was claiming someone had broken into her apartment. I had Lipson wait with other officers while I went to secure the front door of her apartment. I noticed the screen around the front window had been cut off. When I was joined by other officer, we cleared the apartment. No one was found inside. Lipson was brought up to the apartment were she noticed two televisions, $300 dollars worth of food, and $350 worth of clothing was missing. She also pointed out the lock to the window had been broken. A pumpkin had also been kicked by the door. Lipson had not been home sense 11/24/20. She stated she came home tonight, 01/08/21, to the front door still being locked, but damage to the window as described. EPD Crime Scene Unit came to the apartment to process the scene. Lipson was given a case number for her reference. Winkley, Rebekah Sibylle (W F, 22) VICTIM of Domestic Battery-adult Knowing Presence Of Child Less Than 1 (C), at 1238 Erie Ave, Evansville, IN, between 18:15, 01/08/2021 and 18:22, 01/08/2021. Reported: 01/08/2021. Officers were dispatched to the listed address in reference to a domestic violence in progress. LW 2100460	upstairs, when the offender came into the bathroom and stated that he was leaving. Winkley stated that the offender had been watching their mutual juvenile child (age 2), and that she asked him to not come back to the residence if he could not watch their child while she was in the bath. Winkley stated that she got out of the tub, as she was concerned for her son`s safety, and that is when Winkley and the offender began to verbally argue. Winkley and the offender went downstairs where the argument turned physical. Winkley stated that she was trying to remove the deadbolt from the door in order to ask the offender to leave, when the offender grabbed her from the rear, put his arm around her neck, and put her in a "chokehold." Winkley stated that the offender would not let go, so she hit him in order to get free. Winkley stated that the offender then hit her multiple times in the face with an open hand. Winkley stated that the offender then stated that he was going to kill her and hit her again. The offender then went upstairs and began throwing items down the stairs, and then left shortly after in a white or grey Buick (unknown license plate). Winkley stated that she was holding their mutual juvenile son during the initial portion of the physical altercation. Officers observed scratches on Winkley`s chest and redness on both sides of Winkley`s face, consistent with being struck with a hand. Officers documented Winkley`s injuries on their department-issued body-worn camera. Winkley did not request or need medical attention on scene. Officers provided Winkley with resources for a safe place to stay, as well as instructions on how to obtain a protective order. Officers also provided Winkley with a case number and information on how to follow up with the prosecutor`s office. Officers were unable to locate the offender.		MILES, C. A.

Reported: 01/08/2021. On 01/08/2020 at 1915 hundred hours officers were dispatched to 804 Ridgeway in reference to a stolen vehicle report. The victim, Rosetta Eastwood, stated that she allows her brother, John Bridges to use the vehicle. Rosetta stated that John is currently in a rehab facility, and John allowed his nephew, Tyshawn Eastwood, to stay at his home. Rosetta stated that her and John did not allow anyone to use the vehicle and only allowed Tyshawn to stay at John`s home. Rosetta stated that Tyshawn was staying at 729 Cross St where the vehicle was parked at. Rosetta stated that Tyshawn was arrested on 01/03/2021 and the auto theft offender was staying at this home with him. Rosetta and John noticed the vehicle missing on 01/03/2021. Rosetta attempted to reach out to the offender and ask her to bring the vehicle back so they did not have to report it stolen, but can`t get the offender to respond to them. Rosetta and John believe that the offender took the car keys while staying at this address after Tyshawn went to jail. The vehicle is a gray 2006 Pontiac Grand Prix. Rosetta stated that the vehicle does not have any damage or other distinguishing marks, and that the vehicle is completely stock. Officers went to the offender`s listed address and spoke with the home owner. She stated that the offender has never lived there and was not there. The stolen vehicle was also not at the home. The victim was provided with a case number.

The victim stated that she had all of her medications in her purse and wanted to go back to Crosspoint. AMR was called to assist. The victim had a laceration on her left hand middle finger. The victim said that the male subject bit her yesterday. The victim also showed one officer a bruise on her right arm just above her elbow. The bruise was about three to four inches long and roughly one inch wide. The victim would not say how she got the bruise. Another officer asked later to look at it to take pictures and the victim stated that she did not want to show anyone. The victim stated that she has been living with the male suspect since March of last year. She stated that they used to date but are not currently in a relationship. The victim said that the argument started when the male subject tried to take her phone. The vicim said that there was a struggle. At some point the victim had her hand up and she said that the male subject bit her finger. When asked when this happened she said that it happened yesterday. She said there was no physical violence tonight. Officers asked the victim if there was any crime that she wanted to report and the victim stated "no". The suspect and victim live alone and there were no witness on scene during the incident. Officers asked the victim if she had any thoughts of suicide, or if she wanted to hurt herself. The victim stated that she did not. The male subject said that there was a verbal argument over the victim`s phone. The male subject has also had a history of mental illness. The victim was voluntarily transported to a local hospital by AMR. Prior EPD CAD history showed a run the sixteen hours before in which the victim had told dispatch that the suspect bit her finger.	Incident Rpt Misc (C), at 708 N Bell Ave, Evansville, IN, between 18:50, 01/08/2021 and 19:24, 01/08/2021.
