| Battery- Hff Domestic [am] | | | |
| | Police were dispatched to 3803 Covert Ave. in reference to a domestic violence report. On scene, I spoke with the victim. She said her and her boyfriend were at his cousin`s apartment at 1379 Hatfield, where they were visiting with him. After the cousin left, the suspect tried to take his prescription medications, only to discover that kitchen cleaner had been spilled on them. The victim said that`s when the suspect "blew up" and started accusing her of trying to poison him. The victim said the suspect punched her on the right side of her face with a closed fist, and also grabbed her by her arm and neck. The victim was able to get away, and out of the apartment. She walked to 3803 Covert and asked to use the business` phone to call 911. I observed the victim did have a swollen lump starting to bruise next to her right eye. She also had red marks on her chest and her right arm. She said her mother was on her way to this location to pick her up. I went by the apartment where this occurred, but nobody answered the door. | | |
| LW 1824464 | Dugger, Jason Wayne (B M, 28) VICTIM of Battery-bodily Injury [am] (C), at 203 Jefferson Ave, Evansville, IN, on 11/07/2018, 14:19. Reported: 11/07/2018. | | FENDEL, W. M. |
| Battery-bodily Injury [am] | | | |
| | Officer McConnell and I responded to a family dispute at 203 Jefferson in which the two involved persons were arguing with each other. After speaking with each of them, it was determined that they have had relations in the past. They have no children together. The male occasionally stays at the female`s house (203 Jefferson) and sleeps in a separate bedroom. He also has no contractual interest in the house. | | |
| | Both said that they were battered by the other during the argument. The male claims that the female grabbed him and scratched him. He had a light abrasion on the back of his neck. The female claimed that the male grabbed and twisted her arm and pushed her. She complained of pain to her right arm/wrist and had a small abrasion on the same forearm. | | |
| | The male provided cell phone video of a short clip of the argument in which they were yelling at each other, getting in each others face, and antagonizing each other. Ultimately, neither wanted to file battery charges. The female wanted the male to take his things and leave, which he did. | | |

| LW 1824504 Battery - Committed W/ Deadly Weapon | I was dispatched to US 41 and Morgan Avenue in regard to a hit and run with property damage report. Upon arrival, I spoke with the victim who informed me she was driving north-bound on US 41 in the right straight lane. The victim noticed a vehicle appearing to be of silver color on her left-hand side (driving in the middle lane) with its right turn signal activated. The silver vehicle suddenly made a right-hand (east-bound) turn while both vehicles were proceeding through the intersection of US 41 / Morgan Avenue. This caused damage to the rear driver's side door on the victim's vehicle. The victim slowed down and pulled over on the right-hand shoulder of US 41, just to the north of the intersection of US 41 / Morgan Avenue in order to report the crash. The victim then noticed the silver vehicle did not stop to report the crash as well. The victim thought the suspect's vehicle went east onto Morgan Avenue, but was not completely sure. The victim did not get a license plate number on the suspect vehicle, but noticed the vehicle had preexisting damage to the rear-right side. A witness pulled over and informed me he was driving north-bound on US 41 behind the suspect vehicle and watched the collision occur. The witness said the suspect attempted to make a right-hand (east-bound) turn onto Morgan Avenue from the middle lane. When the suspect's vehicle turned, it crashed into the victim's vehicle. The suspect's vehicle, according to the witness, was an older model tan Honda Accord. The witness confirmed the vehicle traveled east-bound onto Morgan Avenue from US 41 until the vehicle left his sight. The witness did not observe the license plate on the suspect vehicle. I observed tan paint transfer on the rear driver's side door on the victim's vehicle. I provided the victim with a case number for her reference and informed her she would need to contact her insurance company to start the claims process. | Anderson, Stacy Anne (W F, 46) VICTIM of Battery - Committed W/ Deadly Weapon (C), at 4556 Spring Valley Rd, Evansville, IN, between 21:20, 11/07/2018 and 21:20, 11/07/2018. | LW 1824515 Battery-domestic Violence Incident Report | Battery-domestic Violence Incident Report (C), at 648 E Florida St, Evansville, IN, between 15:00, 11/07/2018 and 22:47, 11/07/2018. Reported: 11/07/2018. No victims listed. The listed IO`s co-habitate and are allegedly due to have a child together. They are fighting over the internet being shut off. The two were shouting at each other the entire time I was there. The male was upset because the female shut off the internet so he couldn`t use his TV or XBox. She was upset because he was trying to throw out their couch and refrigerator because it was all roach infested. Neither would back down from their positions. The male claimed the female struck him in the face, but was sure to point out that it happened earlier that day at 1530 when none of the kids were around. When the male said he wanted to press charges the female said she wanted to press charges for him kneeling her in the stomach. She did not provide details or a timeline. The female claimed to have continuous audio/video recordings proving she never hit the male. She did not offer, however, to provide proof he hit her. The male stated he was willing to go to jail over his "$150 TV," and stated if I did not force her to turn the internet back on we would be back out tonight to take them both to jail. When I began to call for another car, the male stated he changed his mind and didn`t want to go to jail. He agreed to separate by going to the back room for the night. He continued to rant and yell, as did the female. Their arguing woke the three juveniles sleeping in the house. | | CASSIN, N. A. |
