Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
LW 1810444 Incident Rpt Misc	Incident Rpt Misc (C), at 1601 S Green River Rd, Evansville, IN, between 03:40, 05/16/2018 and 03:46, 05/16/2018. Reported: 05/16/2018. No victims listed. I was dispatched to the listed address in reference to a check the welfare. The clerk called in and stated he was concerned for a female on the lot because she was not making any sense and was talking about flying monkeys. On scene I spoke with the female who identified herself as Sylvia. Sylvia was rambling on about different things but when asked a question she could answer it. She stated that she was not far from home and that she knew how to get there but would not tell me her address. She began to get very irritated with me so I left and parked down the street to keep an eye on her. She did leave the parking lot and entered onto Covert Ave. After walking a very short distance down the street she stopped to take a break but failed to move out of the street. I pulled up to her and asked if she could move up to the parking lot so she would not get hit and she became very verbally abusive. Due to her state of mind I called for an ambulance but prior to their arrival she got angry and began to take off walking down the middle of Covert Ave. I walked behind her reaching to grab her to get her to stop and at that time she tossed a cup of water on me and had to be handcuffed. AMR did arrive and were able to get her to calm down. She told them her name and we were able to look up her address. She refused to allow me to give her a ride home but did accept from another Officer and was taken home. I did speak with her sister who stated Sylvia is bipolar and that she has been trying to get her help. She stated she has talked to everyone but no one seems to be able to do anything. Her sister fears that because of Sylvia`s mental state and aggressive manner toward people that she may get hurt.		ELFREICH, C. A.

LW 1810498 Battery-strangulation	Allen, Mariah Nashay (B F, 29) VICTIM of Battery-strangulation (C), at 1110 W Tennessee St, Evansville, IN, between 17:45, 05/16/2018 and 17:52, 05/16/2018. Reported: 05/16/2018.  Officers were dispatched to an assault in progress. Dispatch advised the suspect had fled the scene and gave a vehicle description. Officers were unable to locate the suspect while enroute to the address. The victim stated her brother put his hand on her throat multiple times, causing her to have trouble breathing. He also punched her in the face and head multiple times. This all occurred in the presence of her 4 juvenile children, one of which was crying frantically during the altercation. Officers observed the victim to have a busted lip, which was bleeding. The victim also complained of mild pain on her head. She refused an ambulance. The victim was given the case number and advised of the process of obtaining a protective order.		MONTANK, J. C.
LW 1810502 Theft All Other &lt; $750	Thomas, Kendra Denise (B F, 29) VICTIM of Theft All Other < $750 (C), at 4505 Pollack Ave, Evansville, IN, between 17:00, 05/16/2018 and 18:30, 05/16/2018. Reported: 05/16/2018.  Police were dispatched to 4505 Pollack in reference to a theft report. On scene, I spoke with the victim. She said when she left her house, her dog (a white pit bull with a black spot around its left eye) was tied up in the backyard. When she got home, he was gone. Her neighbor at 4509 Pollack, said he saw a flatbed pickup back into the driveway while she was gone. The driver then loaded 10 plus bags of leaves that were sitting against the front of the house into the back of the truck. While he did this, the dog had gotten out of the backyard, and was hanging around the suspect. The neighbors didn't actually see the suspect put the dog in his truck, so it's possible the dog just ran off. The victim has no idea who or why someone would come and haul their leaves off. The dog is chipped in case it is located. The dog has ran off before, but always comes back.		HELM, J. E.
