LW 2413959 Civil Procedure- Refusal To Identify Self While Stopped For	Society VICTIM of Civil Procedure- Refusal To Identify Self While Stopped For (C), at 799 N Tenth Ave/w Columbia St, Evansville, IN, between 10:25, 07/24/2024 and 10:37, 07/24/2024. Reported: 07/24/2024. I, Officer Gibson, was dispatched to the 2100 block of West Delaware St in reference to a suspicious circumstances. The caller called into 911 and advised dispatch of the location. The caller told dispatch there was a female that was wearing a red shirt and shorts with a bandana on going into peoples properties and going through their backyards. The caller stated the female was walking onto the properties from the alley. I arrived in the area and saw a female, wearing a red shirt, that had misc items in her arms, and was walking in the middle of Tenth Ave between Columbia St and Maryland St. As I was approaching in my fully marked Evansville Police Department patrol vehicle and black male on a bike waved me to him. The black male on the bike was pointing at the female in the red shirt, indicating that she would not leave him alone. I exited my patrol vehicle and asked the female to stop. The female walked behind my patrol and continued walking southeast in the roadway. I told the female to stop and come over to the side and talk to me. The female continued to walk away and walked to the east side of the street and on the sidewalk. As I got closer to the female I continued to tell her to stop and that I needed to talk to her. The female stopped on the sidewalk and put her hand up (as a sign for me to stop) and said "I can not let you come closer". I told the female again that I needed to speak with her and asked her what her name was. The female looked at, shrugged her shoulders, then said "I'm humbug". The female then went on to talk about Christmas, Jesus, and Hitler. I told the female I just needed her name so we could speed things up and get on with our day. The female then said "my name is what... my name is hoop... my name is what hoop do I need to jump through". The female then started walking south away from me and I told her she needs to stop or I would have to handcuff her. The female stopped for a moment and turned to me and I told her I needed her name because people called in saying that she was going through their yards. The female cut me off and said her name was "Adam Gooseman". I asked the female what her birthday was and she continued to talk jibberish. The female then turned away from me and started walking in the street. The female stopped in the middle of the street and turned to me and said "I'll give you my shoe if that will make you feel better". The female continued to talk jibberish and I grabbed her left upper arm to place her in handcuffs. The female tried pulling away and walking away. I was able to get the female to the ground where she tried keeping her hands from me by placing them between her and the ground. I was eventually able to get the female's hands out from under her and put them behind her back. I held them there until another officer arrived on scene and helped me get her handcuffed.		GIBSON, S. E.

Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
LW 2413963	Officers were eventually able to identify the female by taking her picture and running it through the clearview software. As the transport van arrived Officer Turnock and I told the female we were going to get her up and to the transport van. The female refused to get up and laid down flat on her back. Officer Turnock and I picked the female up by each of us placing our hand under her arms. We walked the female to the transport van and as we approached the back of the van the female tried to use her bodyweight to go to the ground. Officer Turnock and I maintained control under the females arms and used our free hands to pick up her legs. The female then tried kicking at officers. Officer Turnock and I put the female on the ground while Officer M Taylor retrieved leg shackles. Officer M Taylor placed legged shackles on the female so she could no longer kick at officers. Officers had to pick the female up and place her into the transport van. The female was then transported to the VCCC and booked on the listed charges.		BEARD, J. A.
