I made contact with the victim in front of the residence. She said the offender had left the scene in a newer model, black Ram truck. The victim stated she and the offender, her boyfriend of 3 years and 1.5-2 year resident of the listed address, were in a verbal argument inside the home. The victim said she went outside to the front of the residence. She stated the offender was inside on the phone with his sister and becoming extremely agitated. The victim said the offender then walked out of the residence, grabbed her around the neck, put her in a headlock, and attempted to gouge her eyes with his fingers. She said the offender then threw her to the ground before leaving the scene. I observed a small cut just below the victim's right eyebrow. The victim also had a small cut and red marks at the back right of the base of her neck. I photographed the victim's injuries using my bodyworn camera. A small child lives in the residence, but the victim said the child was inside and could not see or hear the battery. While we were there, the victim discovered that the offender had taken the child with him. The victim said the child is the offender's, and he has the right to take the child. The victim said she is not worried about the child's welfare. The offender has a previous domestic battery conviction (cause # 82C01-0710-FC-01177; dated 04/04/2008) enhancing the charge to a Level 6 Felony. The victim was given a case number.		MYERS, J. J.
