LW 2604386	Criminal Mischief [bm]	Miranda rights. The female advised officers she was unaware that she was in possession of unpaid merchandise. She stated she didn't want to blame her juvenile daughter but said her daughter was placing items in the bagging area causing her to be confused on what items were scanned. She used the self checkout to scan her items. After completing her first transaction, before she left the store, she went back to the checkout to scan three items that she failed to scan the first time. She then proceeded to leave the store passing all points of payment and was stopped by the reporter. The female advised me she went back to the checkout after the first transaction because she knew she failed to scan some items. The reporter advised officers he witnessed the female offender failing to pick up several items from her shopping cart. The reporter said the female picked up items from the cart and then put the items back in the cart without scanning it. The reporter also said the female placed scanned merchandise on top of the unpaid merchandise in the cart. Video surveillance confirmed the reporter's statement. A total of 15 items worth $87.76 was unpaid for by the offender. The items were recovered. The offender was given a citation and released.	ZACHARY, B. E.
