| LW 2604641Found Property   | Society VICTIM of Found Property (C), at 2812 Edgar St, Evansville, IN, on 03/20/2026, 15:13. Reported: 03/20/2026.Officers were dispatched to a mental person. The person was said to be running around naked and smoke was coming from the person's residence.First Responders arrived on scene and located the person (female). She informed first responders on scene that the voices in her head told her to kill one of her cats. She was naked inside the home with blankets on her acting erratic as the home was actively on fire. She was taken from the home and placed in the care of AMR as fire worked the still active fire.After the fire was put out, EFD located one cat alive in the home (hiding behind a couch) and another that was deceased (was not in rigger). At the time of the fire there were no exits the cats could have taken to get out of the home to escape the fire and smoke. This caused the animals to breath in the smoke and endure the conditions for an extended period of time. The cat that was alive, was taken to the vet. The deceased cat was later sent off for a necropsy. The mother of the woman that set the home on fire informed officers that the cats were indoor cats and that there were only two.The female was brought to the hospital for medical treatment. A CIT report and an Arson report were also completed. Results of the cause of death for the deceased cat and the condition of the alive cat are pending.During the investigation, a green and black glass pipe with burnt residue was found on a dresser. It was collected and placed into evidence as found property. |   | FAHSE, A. G.  |
