Upon arrival, I spoke with the victim. She stated that the resident from the unit across the hall from her unit had placed a black bag in front of her door. The victim advised that she was afraid to check the contents of the bag. She also reported that she had camera footage of the male placing the bag at her door. The bag was examined and found to contain empty beer cans. I contacted the management company. Management stated that placing trash in front of another residents apartment is a violation of policy and that they would issue a notice to the male resident. Management also advised that this is an ongoing issue and that the male continues to harass the victim.		REID, M. J.
