LW 2609197 Alcoholic Beverage- Public Intoxication By Alcohol [bm]	Society VICTIM of Alcoholic Beverage- Public Intoxication By Alcohol [bm] (C), at 20 E Franklin St, Evansville, IN, between 11:00, 05/27/2026 and 11:05, 05/27/2026. Reported: 05/27/2026. A female waved officers down while they were in route to another run. The female informed officers that her ex-boyfriend in the blue was following her (male in a blue hoody was on a bike behind her at the time). She appeared to be in fear. She stated she acted like she was calling police to get away from him and he continued. Officers asked her if there was a PO in place, she stated no but she had paperwork. Officers were informed that the two had been in domestic violence altercations with her as the victim. Officers later found her ID in his wallet (not reported stolen). The male continued to get closer when officers gave a hand gesture to have him come to them. The male stopped on the bike and stated he was not following her and continued to talk over officers as did the female. Officers had to tell them to stop talking and asked the female to step over and lean against their vehicle because they were going to talk with the male. The male began to walk away (still sitting on his bike) as officers asked where he wanted to talk. Cox began to walk away (still on his bike) as I asked where he wanted to talk. Officers asked the male if he was listening to them, when he stated he was not, continuing to move away from officers. Officers grabbed him and informed him he was not free to leave. The male began to tense his body still trying to walk forward on the bike. He was given commands to get off his bike and refused. He began to pull his arms away from officers attempting to get away. Force was used and the male was taken to the ground. He was placed into handcuffs and all force ceased. The male smelled of alcohol and repeated himself multiple times asking the same questions over and over. He was unsteady on his feet as officers searched him, placing his weight on officers so he would not fall. His attitude was up and down and unpredictable. The female that was previously on scene informed officers he was drinking prior to their encounter. The male was searched and placed in the back of the transport wagon. He was brought to VCCC where he continued to call officers names and ask the same questions over and over. The male was booked in on public intox and resisting LE.		FAHSE, A. G.

No victims listed. On the listed date and time, I, Officer Vires, was dispatched to the listed address in reference to a found person. Upon arrival, I found the Rp outside her residence. I spoke with the Rp who stated that a juvenile male (4 YOA) was walking down the street in front of her residence. She did not see anyone with or around the child. The child was not scared of her. She thought the juvenile was going to get hit by a car so she held the juveniles` hand. She asked him where he lived and he directed her back to his residence. The Rp stated that the juvenile told her that he was going to the gas station to get a treat. The Rp noticed that the juvenile had no socks on. The juvenile told her that he put his shoes on himself. The Rp stated that once she got to the juveniles` residence, she knocked loudly 2-3 times, but all the lights were off, and no one answered the door. The Rp stated that she was standing out front of the juveniles` residence with the juvenile when the juveniles` older sister had just gotten off work and was dropped off by an UBER driver in front of their residence. She went inside and yelled for their mother. The daughter asked her mother why she didn`t answer the door. The mother stated that she did not hear anyone knocking because the other juveniles were on the XBOX. I went to the listed address and spoke with the mother. The mother was crying. She stated that she had taken a bath, told the juveniles that she was going to lay down for a little bit, layed down, and fell asleep. She stated that normally the juvenile, along with his other two siblings, goes to the older sister`s room and plays on her XBOX while she is at work. She stated that the juvenile male is familiar with the		VIRES, R. M.
