When he came back out, she claims that he told her to get out so she grabbed an air fryer that she bought for him and some things from his bedroom that she had also bought for him when he grabbed her by the hair and pulled her outside of his apartment. Heidi stated that this is when he made a threat to punch her in the face if she didn't leave so Heidi called 911 and they left. Afterwards, we went and spoke with Kenny next door at 1250 Hatfield Drive. Kenny stated that after she made the gesture that angered him, he asked her to leave several times to which she refused. He then stated that she made way for his bedroom where she owns nothing and he was afraid that she was going to damage his property, so he grabbed her by the hair to protect his property and wanted her to leave. We asked both parties what kind of relationship they had and they state that they were just friends and she rarely would stay the night over but it was not romantic. There was a possibility of it being somewhat romantic years ago when they were younger but they decided to stay friends.
