LW 2615087 Motor Vehicle-Leaving The Scene Of A Crash-Property Damage	Dorcelus, Jean Ronald (B M, 36) VICTIM of Motor Vehicle- Leaving The Scene Of A Crash- Property Damage (C), at 3504 Jackson Ave, Evansville, IN, between 10:20, 08/23/2026 and 10:32, 08/23/2026. Reported: 08/23/2026. Officers were dispatched to a crash at the neighborhood Walmart. It was later changed to a hit and run with property damage and the address was updated to the intersection of Lombard/Jackson. Officers arrived on scene and located multiple crashed vehicles in the 3500 block of Jackson Ave. The suspect vehicle, a red Subaru Forester, had damage to the front and rear. It was positioned in front of 3504 Jackson Ave with the rear end of the vehicle facing the front door, at a slight angle. A white van was next to the red Forester, it had damage to the rear passenger side and to the front bumper. It is uncertain if the front bumper damage is new or not. The registered owner was not on scene. There were two vehicles, another van and an suv on the other side of the parking lot, in front of 3507 that also sustained damage. The the van had damage to the rear passenger side and the suv had rear end damage. As much information was gathered as possible about the vehicles and the owners, but no one spoke good English. No insurance information was able to be obtained and no clear story was able to be put together. It is believed that the three victim`s vehicles were all parked in the parking lot and the suspect vehicle somehow struck all three. The suspect then apparently fled the scene. The registered owner of the suspect vehicle lives at 3504 Jackson Ave. Officers attempted to make contact at the door but got no answer. The suspect vehicle was towed to tri-state towing with a hold for hit and run. The other three vehicles were left in the parking lot. The three victim`s/representatives who were present with the vehicle`s were provided with a case number.		AKER, B. W.
