The female victim stated she had been dating a male for a period of time, but she has since, within the last couple of weeks, ended the relationship. Despite her telling him that they are no longer in a relationship and that she is not interested, he continues to follow her as she comes and goes from either work or daily tasks. She stated that over the weekend, Saturday and Sunday, he followed her home from work. As she was entering her apartment, he ran into her apartment and would not leave. She stated that during those times on Saturday and Sunday, he threatened her and battered her. The victim stated that over the weekend, she attempted to get him to leave by driving him to his brother's house. While en route to his brother's house, as she was driving, he put his hands over her face so she could not see, creating a dangerous situation. She said she was afraid that she was going to crash the car, so she tried to bite his hand to stop him from covering her eyes. Over the course of the weekend, while at her house, he became angry with her and grabbed her arm hard enough to cause bruising on another part of her right arm. 	permission and stayed in her home for approximately three hours. He would not leave despite her repeatedly telling him to leave. The victim reported that today, she had gone to Meijer grocery store to shop. When she returned home, he was in the hallway of her apartment building and followed her upstairs. She told him that she did not want him in her apartment and tried to get him to leave, but he refused. While inside the apartment, she said that as she was telling him to leave, they got into an argument, and he picked her up and slammed her onto the ground. She said she felt pain as a result of that. He then got on top of her, placed his forearm across her neck, and applied pressure. The victim reported that she could breathe. However, he continued to apply pressure, and if he had continued to apply the same amount of pressure, it would have caused her to be unable to breathe. She explained that her airway was constricted due to his arm being placed on her throat. The victim stated that he did not leave until she called the police. I gave the victim a case number and told her that we would be pressing charges. She emphatically stated that she did not want me to press charges and that all she wanted was a restraining order or for me to tell him not to come back. She told me that her ex-boyfriend told her that if she ever reported any of this to the police or pressed charges regarding any of the incidents, including several other incidents she described involving him battering her, he would call ICE and would be able to get her deported.
