Reported: 09/18/2026. On 9/17/2026, officers were dispatched to a check welfare where the offender stated there were people inside the house trying to fight her. The offender then got into a random persons car and then ended up at a different location where officers made contact with her. While speaking to the offender inside a place of business, she was being verbally aggressive and loud while patrons where inside. The offender also had an odor of an alcoholic beverage emitting from their person and were underage. While escorting the offender to a patrol car she continued to scream in the parking lot after being told not to. While loading the offender into a patrol car she attempted to kick an officer and made contact with his left forearm. The offender then began telling two officers on scene she hopes they die along with their children. While transporting the offender to jail she made a comment to the officer in the vehicle that she hopes they die along with their children and they rot in hell. After arriving at jail, officers were waiting for a restraint chair when the offender began kicking the windows of the patrol car. Force was used to subdue the offender and she was booked on multiple charges.		ANDREWS, R. L.
